

StudyGen reporting as a service

Data preparation of laboratory information, with the aim of a standardized implementation of the regulatory requirements of registration reports of bioanalytical studies as a cloud solution was funded by the European Union from the European Regional Development for regional development.